

Updated 6/9/2009

Resident Assistance Program (RAP)

The Resident Assistance Program is in place to help residents and their families with troubling problems ranging from stress and burnout to grief and dependence issues. Counseling is confidential and a fringe benefit of the College of Medicine.

Please refer to <http://www.med.ufl.edu/benefits/HSFB.shtml> for the most up-to-date information.