17. Ethics in Pathology

Ethics in pathology is discussed as part of our daily resident training.

Residents are strongly encouraged to subscribe to Virtual Mentor (<http://www.virtualmentor.org>) the American Medical Association's monthly on-line ethics journal for medical students, residents, and other physicians. Published by the Ethics Standards group, Virtual Mentor provides a forum for examining the ethical ideals and obligations of the medical professionalism (1-22-2003).

Guidelines concerning industry gifts to physicians are found at: <http://www.ama-assn.org/go/ethicalgifts>.
